

The Pushkin Trust, Arts Care and the Public Health Agency

Let the Dance Begin

Inspired by Seamus Heaney the Pushkin Trust's theme for 2018

“Opening Ground”

Pop-Up Gallery

Castle Street, Strabane, 19th-23rd February

A wonderland display of vibrant visual art and written word created during the Let The Dance Begin project. Whats on? It all begins with....

‘Let the Dance Begin’ Celebration Walk

Monday 19th February 2018, 6.30pm

From The Alley Theatre, Strabane to The Pop-Up Gallery on Castle Street

Be a part of our colourful parade led by Samba drumming and a wonderland of 3D nature sculptures. Then, browse the Pop-Up's collection of visual art and written word created during the project by local community groups and schools. The evening will also celebrate the book launch of:

Bella Bee – a children's story by Maia Horn and

Tranquillity – a collection of poems created by the Hillside Writers, Strabane
This is an Arts Care project guided and edited by Artist-in-Residence, Michelle Young.

Tuesday 20th February 2018

Join Arts Care's Resident Artist, Brónagh Corr-McNicholl, in a variety of drop-in workshops

Wednesday 21th February 2018, 1.00pm

Poetry readings and sharing from The Hillside Writers and
My Chair, My Story Community group

Thursday 22nd February 2018

Printing workshop led by Brónagh Corr McNicholl with participants from Strabane & Lifford Resource Centre

Please feel free to pop in anytime to browse and look at the visual art and poetry created by the people of Strabane!

For further information on the Let the Dance Begin Arts & Well-being Project contact:

The Pushkin Trust: 028 8166 2299

Arts Care: 028 9031 1122

